Venue History

This building has a long history of being a performance venue, dating all the way back to the early 20th century. Built in 1875, it was originally a storefront before being converted into a place for leisure, drinking and entertainment (sound familiar?) Located on the Oxford Street 'Golden Mile' that became the Sydney hub for the LGBTQIA+ community from the 60s onwards, this venue has seen it all. There are even records of attempts to get entertainment licenses revoked from the premises but here we are – still making art and serving drink.

Is that the Meraki spirit in the air?
